SEEING THE BIG FIGHT FROM THE OUTER RIM OF THE ARENA

Aimee Starts Defense Fund 'to Fight Devil'

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 19.—[Special].—Rising from her sick bed,

Aimee McPherson appeared before her congregation at Angelus temple this morning and made a stirring appeal for contributions of "devil fighting money" with which to finance her defense in her coming hearing on charges of conspiracy to obstruct justice.

Mrs. McPherson's entry into the church was dramatic. Appearing after the services were well started in company with her daughter, Roberta, and her son, Roy, with a courage of flowers plumed to her bosom, the congregation burst forth with fervid cries of "Hallelujah! Praise God!" as the trio came down the stairway and approached the rostrum.

A "Fight the Devil Fund."

Her appeal for contributions came after a Chicago attorney, who did not give his name, made an address expressing his belief in Mrs. McPherson's innocence. At the conclusion of his remarks Mrs. McPherson said that leading business men of the city had suggested that the temple adopt a policy which she was going to ask them to vote on at this time.

"You may call it a 'fight the devil fund.' If you wish, because that is what it will be used for," Mrs. McPherson said. "You know they are going to use county money on the other side.

"Information has come to me to the effect that the man who will handle the prosecution said that either she will have to go or we will have to go.

And I am here to say that when I am proven innocent he will certainly have to go."

Expresses "Wonderful Victory."

Mrs. McPherson said she did not want to handle the money herself

she wanted her mother or secretary to handle it. But she said that no committee of business men to take charge of it. She then called for a showing of hands to vote on the proposition and her suggestion received the unanimous approval of the vast audience.

Mrs. McPherson gave no indication of the amount of money which would be needed for her defense except by inferring when she said that no people would offer $5,000 and $10,

000, if necessary.

"The Lord is going to give us a wonderful victory," she cried, and the congregation answered "Amen." The pastor concluded her appeal for money by saying that she did not want any long face because everything "is going to come out all right."

RED CROSS ASKS DONATIONS FOR STRICKEN AREA

Dever Pledges Help of Chicago to Sufferers.

Acting under advice from Florida headquarters, the Red Cross yesterday broadcast an appeal for funds for the stricken area. This was supplementary to a nationwide appeal issued from Red Cross headquarters in Washington. The distance and the distance and the distance of the service, no relief trains from Chicago, although trained workers waited most of the day yesterday in the office of the chapter for word to start. Chicago can help through the contribution of gifts for the relief work, Mr. Temple said, and his workers turned their efforts toward preparations for caring and forwarding such gifts.

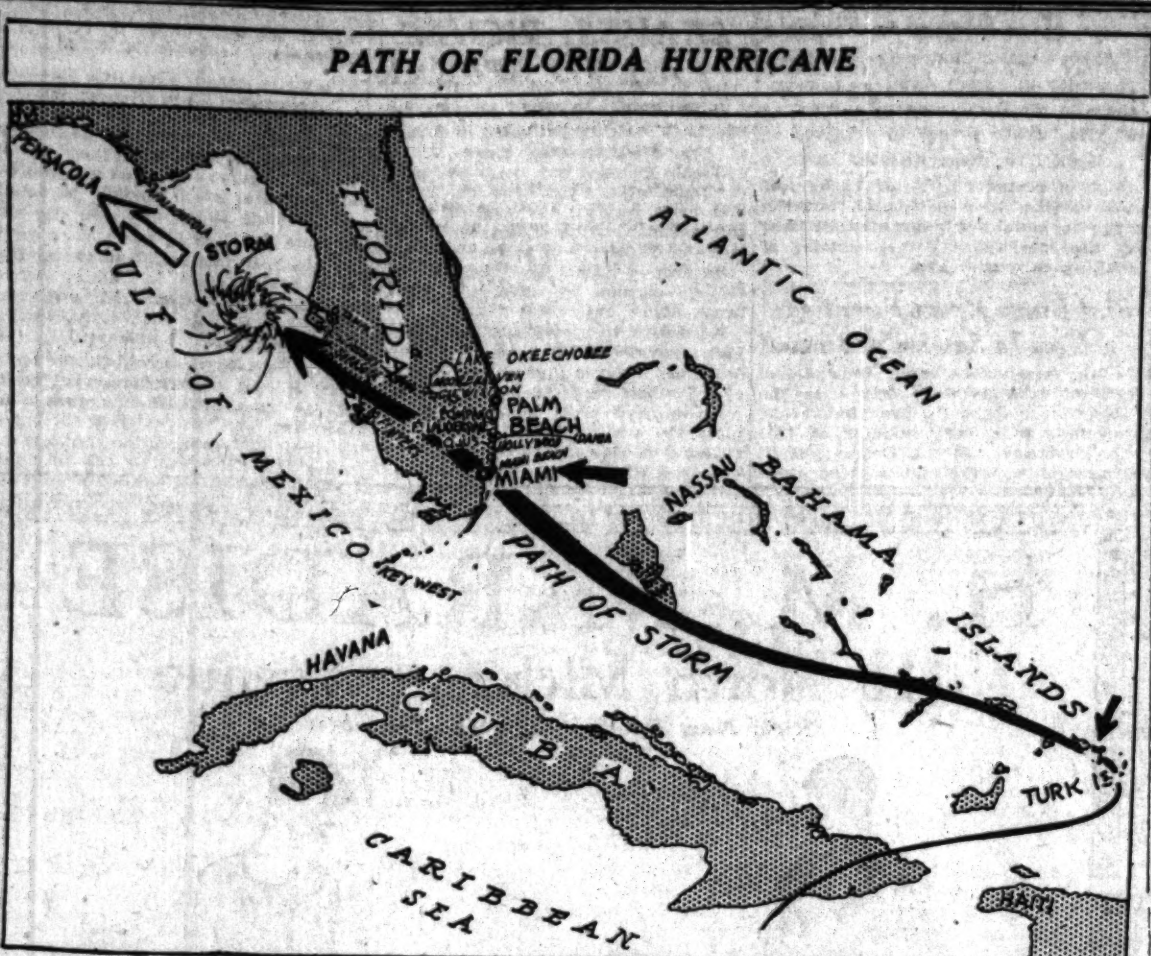

Dever Pledges City's Help.
From Mayor William E. Dever the statement last night that Chicago people never have failed to step up to what is expected of them in such a disaster as has overtaken the state. What Chicago can do, Chicago will. The spirit of the city at this time is to aid the unfortunate citizens of that state. And I know from experience that Chicago's record will be maintained.

Results of the appeal, broadcast by radio and distant radio stations, were practically immediate. Scores of people called The Tribune to announce that they were mailing checks. The first contribution came from Attorney J. J. McCarthy, who telephoned that he was forwarding a check for $50. The first check actually received was from $100 from the composing room employees of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE. James J. Cernak, president of the Red Cross board of commissioners, has just ordered a survey of all money raised, to find the number that are available for relief work in the stricken area. It is probable that it will be held in readiness to join a relief train personnel on request. Checks and money should be sent to the headquarters of the Red Cross, at 200 North Michigan avenue, checks and drafts being made payable to the Red Cross, or may be sent directly to THE TRIBUNE, to be forwarded.

Other Cities Rushing Help.
Other cities of the organization in the east and south are rushing all available help to the stricken area, and it is expected by officials of the Red Cross that all funds intended for relief work will be disbursed for the stricken area, nothing at all being held back.

A wide appeal for relief funds was sent out by the headquarters of the American Red Cross at Washington, D. C., yesterday. Mr. Baker, director of the national relief unit of the Red Cross, is in a government airplane to Miami. Until his arrival, Mr. T. H. Martin, Florida field representative, was in charge of the relief work. Mr. Baker is expected to arrive in Miami today. He will continue to direct the relief work from there, with continuing reports on conditions to the Red Cross.

Death Takes Youngest Son of James G. Blaine
The Hon. Mr. Sept. 19.—(AP)—James G. Blaine, youngest and only son of James G. Blaine, secretary of state in the administration of President Garfield, died at his home in Cambridge, Cal., yesterday. It became known today.

Coming out of the Atlantic across the Bahamas to the southeast, the great storm that battered the east coast of Florida to the region of Miami swept to the northwest across the peninsula, the Gulf of Mexico, and the general direction of Pensacola.

In the center of the storm, which cut a swath approximately 80 miles in width, the wind is reported to have attained a velocity of 90 to 100 miles an hour. This storm area as a whole traveled on its course to the northwest at a rate of about twenty miles an hour.

Miami, Miami Beach, Hollywood, Ojus, Dania, Hialeah, Fulford, Lemon City, and Fort Lauderdale were in the direct path of this 100 mile an hour vortex.

RUSH SOLDIERS TO MIAMI, PLEA TO GOV. MARTIN

New Smyrna, Fla., Sept. 19.—(AP)—The first passenger from Miami to reach here since the advent of the hurricane arrived at 11:30 this morning, bringing two urgent messages to the outside world.

One message was addressed to Gov. John W. Martin and was signed by the sheriff of Dade county, in which Miami is located. It read: "Rush 250 soldiers to Miami as quickly as possible."

The other message asked that Red Cross and other aid be sent to Hollywood.

U. S. SHIPS SAVE BRITISH WOMEN, BABIES IN CHINA

(Copyright, 1928: By the New York Times.)
LONDON, Sept. 19.—The British naval commander in chief in China and Gen. Yangsen have agreed that the two British steamers, seized recently by Yangsen, shall be surrendered through a non-British intermediary, according to a Peking correspondent of the Daily Telegraph. The correspondent adds: "News received here shows the situation at Chungking has become worse as the result of anti-British feeling. All British women and children there are being removed on steamers of the Standard Oil company."

Hurricane Misses Cuba; Small Schooner Sinks

HAVANA, Cuba, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The hurricane did not strike Cuba, with any violence. Some high winds and heavy rains were reported, but little damage and no lives lost. A small schooner was sunk near Guantanamo bay and the fate of the crew is not known. For sixty miles north of Key West telephone advices report little damage, but no definite news can be had of Miami through that channel.

DIES AFTER FALL OUT OF BED

Herman Lawson, 50 years old, 12 South Peoria street, died at the County hospital yesterday of a skull fracture sustained on Wednesday, when he fell from a bed in his room in the floor.

TOWNS THAT BORE BRUNT OF EAST COAST HURRICANE DISASTER

Miami, reported laid waste early Saturday by the worst hurricane in the history of Florida, lies on the extreme lower east coast of the peninsula, approximately 350 miles south of Jacksonville. West Palm Beach is 45 miles north of Miami, with Fort Lauderdale about midway between.

Pompano is a coast town with an estimated population of 15,000, lying midway between Fort Lauderdale and West Palm Beach.

Running down virtually the entire eastern coast of the peninsula is a series of "keys," long, narrow islands of sand and coral formations, and separated from the mainland by lakes, bays, and inlets.

Miami Beach and Palm Beach are built on keys lying off the mainland and fronting directly on the ocean. Miami Beach is separated from Miami and the mainland by Biscayne bay, having an approximate width of three miles. Early reports told of the sinking of all ships in the bay and of the virtual destruction of the $1,000,000 causeway connecting the two points.

Lake Worth, separating Palm Beach and West Palm Beach, on the mainland, has a width of about one-half mile.

Fort Lauderdale, also reported in early dispatches to have suffered heavily from the storm, has a deep water outlet to the ocean in the New river, said to be the deepest inland stream in the United States. Fort Lauderdale is a base for a United States coast guard unit.

Lying between West Palm Beach and Miami are approximately a score of small coastal cities, where damage is also believed to have been heavy.

Miami is the metropolis of Florida's lower east coast and, with Palm Beach, ranks as one of the foremost winter resorts in the country. First settled in the '30s by a detachment of government troops, Miami became an important economic and shipping center with the arrival of the Florida East Coast railway, constructed by Henry Flagler.

The city has been noted of late years for its real estate activities.

Palaces of Rich at Miami in Hurricane; Fear Destruction

Winter estates of many of the nation's millionaires, great real estate projects built during the recent Florida land boom, in which many Chicagoans are financially interested, were in the path of the Miami hurricane. Early reports had many of the mansions of the wealthy greatly damaged or destroyed.

One of the costly places which fell the brunt of the storm, according to reports, is the $5,000,000 art palace—the finest in all Florida—built by the late James Deering of Chicago, son of William Deering, founder of the Deering Harvester company.

Just South of Miami.
The Deering villa, Viscaya, is located on the shores of Biscayne bay, just beyond Miami. It has been called the finest development project of the south, and its whole effect has been pronounced the only modern construction comparable to the palace of Versailles.

There were seventy-two rooms in the house, modeled after the Renaissance villa at Bassano in late Renaissance style, and it was Deering's delight to furnish them in a most unique fashion. Not a single commercial lighting fixture went into the villa; nearly every door is an antique; not a single item came new; it is said, from the stores and shops.

The villa is built of porous coral, and is set high on a terrace which leads to boat houses, tea gardens, swimming pools, and a score of pagodas. Adjacent to the grounds is a huge island, built in a specially constructed concrete basin. The island, 300 feet long and 185 feet wide, is shaped like a large boat, and is decorated with special lighting effects. Thousands of dollars were spent in dredging so that yachts might tie up to the pier of the boathouse.

Charles Deering also has a magnificent place north of Miami in the path of the storm.

Harry Moir, owner of the Morrison hotel, has another of the showplaces of southern Florida, his estate in Miami Beach having cost nearly $200,000. Another is the luxurious winter palace of David Gage Joyce, the millionaire lumberman, which also is located on Biscayne bay near the Deering estate.

It was there that Joyce's brother, James Stanley Joyce, took his bride, Peggy Hopkins Joyce, for a honeymoon. Later David Joyce was married there to his second wife, the former Beatrice Each, whose first husband, Edward E. Each, brought a $250,000 allotment of affections suit against Joyce.

Terry Druggan of Chicago beer and jail running fame purchased a $250,000 palace at Miami Beach, and maintains that as well as his great farm near Libertyville.

Bryan Built a Villa.
Villa Serene, a villa in millionaire's row at Miami, was built by William Jennings Bryan. It had become so valuable that the Commonweal was forced to sell it, and he then purchased a home at Coconut Grove, just outside Miami, and also in the devastated territory.

Coral Gables, the most ambitious of the Florida realty projects, which has been heralded as the southern paradise of America and into which many millions of American capital went to build apartments of luxury and beauty, is just a short hop from Miami. Other subdivisions now by which were widely advertised as the future play places for America's rich are Hollywood-by-the-Sea and Frank Croisan's project at Boca Raton, Fla.

4 CHICAGOANS IN FIRST LIST OF STORM DEATHS

Relatives Here Swamp
Phones for Information.

First known Chicago dead among the storm's toll are Mrs. Rhoda Louise Priess, 55 years old, formerly of 3356 West 55th street, her daughter, Lorena Helen, and Leon Meyers, a cousin, who were killed at Hollywood, and E. C. Carlstone, a realtor.

The three were identified as Chicagoans by Mrs. Priess' sister-in-law, Mrs. W. J. Priess, of 6526 South Whipple street. Mrs. Priess collapsed at the telephone when informed of the three deaths.

"I'm so anxious about my husband's sister, Mrs. Pauline Bonadur, who also lives at Hollywood," she said. "My sister-in-law, Mrs. Priess, and her daughter and Leon went down to Florida two months ago to visit Mrs. Bonadur. They were lured there by the apparent big profits in Florida real estate."

Telephones Are Swamped.

Soon after early morning extras reached the street the switchboard operators of THE TRIBUNE were kept busy with incessant calls. The rush increased in volume as the day wore on and the extensive scope of the havoc in life and property wrought by the storm became more fully realized.

Details of the extent of the property damage were almost as widely sought as word of relatives and friends. Many Chicagoans have invested heavily in Florida realty in recent years and these, in many cases, expressed the fear that their savings of a life time had been swept away.

Among the first to call THE TRIBUNE was J. C. Abernathy, 6742 Merrill avenue. Mr. Abernathy's query was in connection with his efforts to obtain word of his sister-in-law, Miss A. B. Oberchain, a resident of Miami, Fla.

Miss Anna Reardon, 7002 South Laflin street, anxiously sought word of her sister, Miss Marie Reardon of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., until, receiving at noon a brief telegram signed "Marie" and saying: "Dear mother, do not worry; safe, well, and happy."

Mrs. Frank J. Elch, 4139 North Key-stone avenue, sought word of her sis-

Albert Pollak of Rogers Park called concerning the safety of his mother, Mrs. K. Pollak; his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anie, and his brother Paul, all of Miami Beach.

Another who anxiously awaited further details of the storm's havoc at Miami was Morris L. Cowen of the Morrison hotel. Mr. Cowen's wife, Mrs. Gertrude Cowen, and his three children are at the southern resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Strump, relatives of Mrs. Sol Harrison, 701 Independence boulevard, are at Miami Beach; and Thomas Mahan, 1053 Dakin street, sought word of his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Stokes, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson of Coconut Grove, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. James Landis of Miami Beach.

Other Chicagoans in Storm.

Mrs. H. W. L. Johns, 5451 Kenmore avenue, called to inquire concerning of Fort Lauderdale, were relieved at receiving a message from her to the effect that she and her children escaped with their lives, though they lost all their possessions. The message added that Mrs. Emma Thorum also escaped unharmed.

Inquire for Families.

Joseph L. Weiner, 440 Surf street, tried vainly during the day to obtain word of his father-in-law, Samuel Meyer of Miami, and Mrs. A. F. Vaughan of Oak Park was anxious for the safety of her husband, A. F. Vaughan, and her two little sons, Robert, 8, and Francis, 12, who are at Miami Beach.

Superintendent of Schools J. W. Ashbury of East Chicago, Ind., inquired if word had come concerning his daughter, Mrs. Earl McGuire, and her husband of Coconut Grove, Miss Berenice Baker, and her brother, Dave, brother and sister of Mrs. Ashbury, reside at Little River, Fla.

A communication was exhausted by Herbert G. Shimp, 4341 Sheridan road, a wealthy insurance broker, in a futile effort to get word of his father and mother who are at Miami. Mr. Shimp was seeking late at night to establish communication with them by radio.

Wife Accuses Husband of Mistreating Stepdaughters

Robert O'Connell, 45 years old, 3029 Elston avenue, was arrested by the Shakespear avenue police last night on charges of mistreating two stepdaughters, 17 and 14 years old. His wife, Mrs. Catherine O'Connell, was the complainant.

Other Chicagoans known to have been in the storm swept area are: Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Swanstrom, and son, Dexter, at Miami Beach; Isadore Ostfeld at Miami, a brother of Mrs. Rose Tapper, 4941 North Albany avenue; Nathan Bauer, Mrs. Grace Bauer, and their baby Charlotte, Miami.

Mrs. Mary Rosenblatt, of the Graeme hotel, sought word of her brother-in-law, George Kaplan of Miami Beach. No word came during the day from Mr. and Mrs. R. Proctor Barclay of Miami Beach, the father and mother of Warren Clarke, 5429 Cornell avenue.

Friends of the Rev. W. R. Wedder- spoon, former pastor of St. James Methodist Episcopal church, were anxious as to his welfare until it was recalled he does not accept his new pastorate, at the Bryan Memorial Methodist Episcopal church of Miami, until Oct. 1.

J. Q. Weber, 444 North Lawler avenue, was awaiting word of his sister, Mrs. Clara Mavity of Pompano. Chicago friends of Mrs. Louise Hasselrus

Chicagoans Try in Vain to Hire Planes to Florida

About a dozen Chicagoans attempted yesterday to engage airplanes to carry them to the storm ravaged district in Florida, either to get to relatives or to learn how great was the damage to their property. W. A. Yackey, of the Checkerboard field, said that the requests could not be granted, because of the scarcity of planes capable of making so long a trip.

Flat Blaze Routs Families; Man Is Severely Burned

One man was severely burned and several families were driven to the street last night by fire that broke out in a four story building at 1409 Taylor street. Joseph Deaplaines, 38 years old, was the man injured.

KEWANEE MAN LEAVES; RICHES FAIL TO APPEAR

John Cooper, Kewanee laborer, who had been waiting patiently in a room at the Atlantic hotel since Friday, suddenly checked out yesterday afternoon and returned to Kewanee. Cooper had been waiting the arrival of his thirty-third birthday and an inheritance of $2,000,000 or more.

Saturday night at 10:48 o'clock Cooper became 33. But his inheritance didn't arrive.

According to previous plans, Cooper had announced the money would not be signed over to him until tomorrow night, when his father and attorney were to arrive from the east and complete the transaction. This now will be done in Kewanee, Cooper said.

Stories which Cooper had refused to verify of late were that he was the chosen heir to the bulk of a large estate in the east, either in Virginia or Delaware.

HOPEFUL AT KEWANEE

Kewanee, Ill., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Near by a thousand residents turned out today to welcome John Cooper, who has offered to share thousands of dollars of an estate which he claims will fall into his hands shortly.

Cooper, former paper maker, arrived after a short visit in Chicago, where he was to have conferred with attorneys concerning the $9,000,000 Virginia estate, as yet unlocated.

The Rev. W. H. Oliver, pastor of the church that Cooper says will be replaced by a $250,000 structure when the "red tape" of receiving the legacy is eliminated, assured the congregation today that "everything was all right."

HURRICANE IS GIGANTIC SW OF TROPIC

Weather Expert Ex
Its Destructive Fo

The hurricane which wrought havoc in Florida originated over the Gulf of Mexico, said C. A. Donnel, meteorologist at the Chicago weather bureau.

In explaining the nature of the hurricane, Mr. Donnel said that it is a great area of air over a tropical sea. The air is lighter than the air over the land, and there is a terrific rush of air from the land into the sea, equalizing the low pressure. The same way that water rushes into a hole in the bottom of a boat.

Storm Covers Vast Circle.

When the hurricane is full grown, it covers a circle of from 200 to 600 miles in diameter. Mr. Donnel said that it is not uncommon for a hurricane to cover an area of 1,000 miles in diameter. Besides its circular nature, a hurricane has an eye, a calm center, which is about 10 miles in diameter. The eye is surrounded by a ring of clouds, which is the most dangerous part of the storm. The eye is a calm center, which is about 10 miles in diameter. The eye is surrounded by a ring of clouds, which is the most dangerous part of the storm.

Course Is Unusual.

There the hurricane curves northeastward across the Gulf, sometimes reaching as far as the Florida coast. But in this storm an abnormal pressure, which has existed since the hurricane formed, has caused it to curve in a northerly direction, instead of the usual easterly direction. The formation of a hurricane is a very rare phenomenon. It is caused by the combination of several factors, including a low pressure area, a warm sea, and a steady trade wind. The hurricane is a very powerful force, and it can cause great damage to property and life.

FLOOD INUNDATES 2,000 HOMES AT SIOUX CITY, IA.

$5,000,000 Damage to Property in State.

Sioux City, Ia., Sept. 19.—(AP)—More than $5,000,000 worth of property in northwestern Iowa was in ruins as flood waters from the Big Sioux and Floyd rivers continued its retreat back to regular channels today.

Damage included $2,400,000 reported by railroads of the flood area. Hardware bankers, after a survey, declared a $500,000 loss was suffered there.

Sioux City's damage with 2,000 homes under water and a large industrial district inundated, will exceed $500,000. A dozen other northwestern Iowa reported losses varying from a few thousand to $100,000. Farm buildings suffered heavily.

The Red Cross, the Salvation Army, the Elks lodge and municipal authorities rushed relief to the flood torn communities. Homeless refugees were being given food and shelter. No loss of life in Sioux City was reported, although there were many narrow escapes from drowning.

Police, city fire department and park employees and federal prohibition agents, who volunteered their services, worked feverishly last night and today rescuing marooned families.

STREAMS STILL RISING

(By Associated Press.)

A middle west worn out by two weeks of battle with the elements aimed on a brief respite last night to strengthen barriers against tides creeping up from flooded lowlands.

Northwestern Iowa, with clearing skies, was threatened by new torrential spread to thousands of acres of standing grain, while farmers in the southwestern corner of the state stood guard over the swirling Skunk river.

Danger from New Source.
At Odanah, in northern Wisconsin, the townsfolk dropped their struggle with White river to combat danger from a new source, the Bad river's belated rise.

Beardstown, in Illinois, faced the fifth day of a vigil on the banks of the Illinois with the hope that levees heaped with sandbags would hold during the few hours' interval before the

FATHER ROBS TO FEED HIS BABIES; REPENTS AND IS SENT TO JAIL

Lack of work for himself and food for his babies drove Leroy LaBart, 28 years old, 4118 Cullerton avenue, to robbery yesterday afternoon. Conscience drove him to the detective bureau last night.

By Lieut. Timothy Rohan he tendered $12.75, with the remark that he couldn't stand possession of it any longer.

"I never did a dishonest thing before in my life," he said. "But the kids had to have something to eat. So I got a monkey wrench and held up a man. I told him I'd kill him if he didn't hand over his dough. Here it is, all I got from him. Look me up." A checkup disclosed that John Smith, 1418 Irving Park boulevard had been robbed by LaBart. The funds were returned to him and LaBart was sent to a cell for the night.

passing of the peak stage, as forecast by the weather bureau.

Six known dead and millions in property damage were counted in the wake of the latest deluge in northwestern Iowa.

A father and his small son were drowned near Hospers when their motor failed them as they fled before the flood from a cloudburst, and they were swept away from the view of the helpless watchers.

Lifts Son to Shoulders.

In a last desperate effort the father lifted the son to his shoulders and braved the swirling waters which engulfed the two a few feet from the abandoned car.

Throughout the area, communication lines were severed, railroad service kept along where washed out sections did not prevent operation altogether and towns and cities were in darkness because of flooded power plants.

3 "Daughters" Drop Suit for Share in Clark Estate

New York, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Collapse of the suit of three women to share in the estate of the late Senator William A. Clark, Montana copper magnate, was announced here today by Edward L. Blackman, counsel for the Clark estate. Mrs. Effie L. McWilliams, Mrs. Addie L. Miller, and Mrs. Alma E. Hines, who claimed to be married daughters of Senator Clark, failed yesterday to file an appeal in Butte, Mont., from the verdict disallowing their claim, he said.

SEIZE 2 ROBBERY SUSPECTS AFTER RUNNING BATTLE

A dozen or more recent gun robberies were believed cleared up yesterday when police took two youths into custody following an auto chase, interspersed with many pistol shots, through the Hyde Park district.

The two arrested are John Kukela, 24 years old, 2117 Walton street, and Herbert Meyer, 19, of 740 North Hoan avenue. Both have criminal records, according to police, Kukela being a former inmate of St. Charles reformatory, and Meyer being recently released on probation after being convicted of auto stealing.

Detective Sergeant Arthur Katt and a detective bureau squad arrested the two after Robert Baldwin, 5113 Blackstone avenue, had complained of being held up and robbed of $60 at Hyde Park boulevard and Greenwood avenue. Kukela and Meyer were taken at 43d street and Greenwood avenue after driving their car into an embankment. A third member of the gang escaped.

PRIMARY LAW REPEAL BIG ISSUE IN NEW JERSEY

G. O. P. Favors Return to Convention System.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Trenton, N. J., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—The direct primary has not proved the panacea for the ills political attributed two decades ago to the machinations of the bosses, and some states have reverted to the old system of convention nominations.

New Jersey is now considering the advisability of following the example of New York and Idaho in abolishing the direct primary. With no senator to be elected in this state this year, the prohibition modification issue is confined to some of the contests over this election of congressmen. The leading statewide issue is the question of the repeal of the law providing for direct nominations which has been proposed by the Republicans and is being opposed by the Democrats.

G. O. P. Would Repeal It.
If the Republicans carry the legislature, the primary law will be repealed; if the Democrats win it will be retained. The platform adopted by the Republican state convention declares: "We believe in providing machinery by which the direct primary can be made effective and become a voters' primary instead of a candidates' primary."

"We therefore recommend that at the party primaries, as now constituted, representatives duly instructed and elected by voters chosen from county units be elected as delegates, authorized to gather in conference and deliberate in convention for the purpose of forming a platform and selection of a nominee for governor and United States senator in the years in which such officer or officers are to be chosen."

"We further recommend that in the election of delegates to the convention for the purpose aforesaid there shall be an equal representation of men and women."

Retain Primary Principle.
The Republicans say the primary modification plan retains the direct primary principle. This is declared by its critics to be mere fiction, although an effort was made so to draft the plank that it would arouse a minimum of resentment among the voters over the loss of a power heretofore in their hands.

Democrats consider this proposed return to the convention system to offer the greatest opportunity to gain control of the legislature they have had in many years. As a preliminary declaration of war on this issue they have included in their platform a plank calling for the continuance of the direct primary system in its present form.

On the politics of the 1927 legislature, accordingly, will depend the survival or the fall of the direct primary and the fate of the primary will govern selection of the Republican candidate who will oppose United States Senator Edward L. Edwards, who will seek reelection.

Leaders Are Coy.
Up to now all of the Republican leaders who have been mentioned as senatorial possibilities in 1928 have been reluctant to admit that they are active candidates for the office, although it is quite generally known that former Governor E. C. Stokes, former United States Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, and Hamilton F. Kean, national committeeman, are only awaiting the propitious moment to start the race.

The three are divided on the question of primary modification. Stokes is for a change and directed the unsuccessful fight for the primary modification bill introduced in the senate last year. He also brought it into the convention and won a decided victory. Opposed to Stokes, who has the support of United States Senator Edge, are Frelinghuysen and Kean, both of whom want to go to the senate. If the 1927 legislature is Republican and the primary modification law is passed, Stokes will be on the threshold of nomination by the convention under the new plan as the Republican candidate for United States senator in a presidential year because the political history of the state in recent years has quite clearly established the fact that the Edge-Stokes forces control the Republican party.

Independence, Ia., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—Farms are flooded and hundreds of tourists were towed through three feet of water when Buffalo creek overflowed here today.

SPAIN WATCHES CLASH OF KING AND DICTATOR

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
MADRID, Sept. 19.—Political interest in Spain has shifted to San Sebastian, where the ministers are preparing for a full cabinet meeting with the king tomorrow. Important results are expected. One conservative paper says of the council: "We are in a political moment of genuine transcendence—one in which nothing less than a new organization of the state is seen."

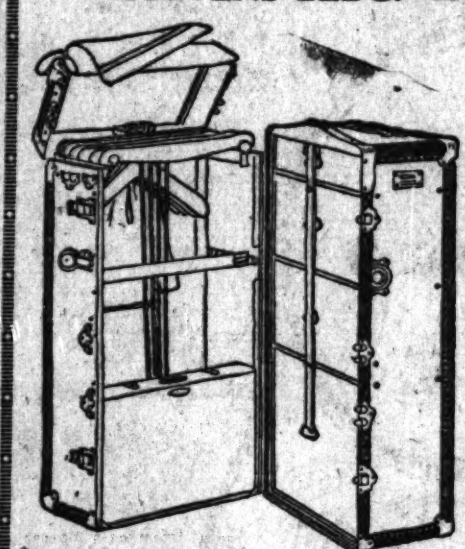

King May Oust De Rivera.
SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Sept. 19.—[U. N.]—The long expected display of strength between King Alfonso and Premier Primo de Rivera is expected here Monday when Gen. de Rivera submits for the king's approval two proposals which are expected to meet with refusal. The immediate result of the meeting possibly will be the ousting of Gen. de Rivera or the abdication of the king, with indications strongly favoring the former. Gen. de Rivera is in San Sebastian for the avowed purpose of obtaining the king's signature on two bills, the first to establish a consultative parliament, and the other calling for a complete reorganization of the Spanish army, particularly the artillery branch, which has caused Gen. de Rivera so much embarrassment.

Mrs. Fisher was Jane Watt of Indianapolis and she married Fisher in that city in October, 1909. A divorce was obtained in Paris last July.

Mitchell had attached Sumner for his record as commander of the Hawaiian department.

Indian wars, Philippine revolts and Mexican bandit raids gave Maj. Gen. Robert Lee Howze his training in hard riding, hard fighting and in surprise attack which won him the congressional medal of honor, many mentions in official orders and rapid promotion. Rescues Navy Officers.

As a lieutenant of cavalry he prevented the warring Sioux tribes from occupying at Wounded Knee and, with his 50 cavalrymen, closed the gap which made possible the return of the Indians to the reservation. When a lieutenant colonel of volunteers Gen. Howze rescued Lieutenant Commander Gilmore and 27 other navy officers and men from the Philippine insurgents under Aguinaldo.

In conjunction with Col. Luther Hare he rescued 3,500 Spanish prisoners, including 450 officers, one a major general. For this Gen. Howze was officially thanked by the secretary of war for "most distinguished conduct" and was officially promoted to be a brigadier general of volunteers, although only a lieutenant in the regular line.

In Gen. Pershing's punitive expedition into Mexico after Villa, Gen. Howze, then a major commanding a squadron of selected mounted men, rode 75 miles in 24 hours without rest while pursuing Villa through the mountain passes. He made a night ride of 43 miles and fought an engagement with the bandits at Cioy Asules, killing 41 of the bandits, including a Villa general. This ride still is referred to as "Howze's ride" and won for him a promotion to be a lieutenant colonel. Gen. Howze was a native of Henderson county, Texas. He was promoted to be a major general on Aug. 22, 1918, which date was the 54th anniversary of his birth.

JARECKI'S RECORD TARGET OF NEW SAVAGE ATTACK

G. O. P. Nominee Says
Rival Violated Oath.

The official record of County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki came in for attack yesterday in a campaign statement issued by Capt. Joseph P. Savage, Republican candidate for County Judge. Capt. Savage declares that Jarecki's qualifications should be his basis for seeking office and he discusses them as follows:

"It is vital to the existence of a free government that the sacredness of the ballot be preserved. In Cook county the one person chiefly charged by his oath of office with the obligation of seeing that elections are honestly conducted is the County Judge. Under the law he is the head of the election machinery of the county and has full control of the appointment of all judges and clerks in the territory over which the board of election commissioners has jurisdiction."

Says Jarecki Remains Silent.

"The present County Judge is now finishing his first term of four years and is a candidate for reelection. If his record as County Judge was a creditable record, we would expect him to be discussing the same and appealing to the voters of Cook county for reelection upon that record. The present County Judge and his press agents for the last six months, however, have remained as silent about his record as the tomb that holds the bones of Julius Caesar, and have been industri-ously setting up straw men that have absolutely nothing to do with his record and speedily knocking them down. "I submit that the only question before the electorate of Cook county is the qualifications of the Democratic candidate and the Republican candidate for that office, and the alleged delinquencies or shortcomings of either are not concerned here. In this discussion and cannot aid the voter in an intelligent decision. Inasmuch as Judge Jarecki and his press agents have not and do not intend to discuss his record as County Judge, I think it is due to the public that I should call their attention to a few salient points of that record, and a study of the same will make it very apparent why they are so strangely silent about it."

Charges Fraud in Vote Count.

"The special grand jury which investigated election conditions, among other things, immediately prior to Judge Jarecki taking office, reported that 'the election law has been honestly and efficiently administered' [by the predecessor of the present County Judge]. In a recent article by Robert W. McKinley, a political associate of Judge Jarecki, Carter H. Harrison is quoted as having estimated that in the 1924 April primary [one of the first elections held under the control and management of Judge Jarecki], 50,000 fraudulent votes were counted by the judges and clerks appointed by Judge Jarecki."

Judge Jarecki in a newspaper interview a year ago declared that more than 50,000 votes were stolen for the traction ordinance in the April 1925 election [also under the Jarecki election regime]. Judge Jarecki this year, under oath, before the Reed senatorial committee, declared the April primary election to be one of the most corrupt ever held and a recent grand jury reported that 'it appears that in some of the wards of this city the right of franchise has almost been lost.' And all spring and summer long Judge Jarecki and his press agent have been loudly proclaiming that the election machinery of this county has broken down."

"I am unaware that at any time either he or his press agents have ever claimed that any election conducted by him has been done so honestly and efficiently."

"The head of an institution must necessarily be held responsible for the conduct of that institution; and the County Judge, as head of the election machinery of this county, is chargeable with the conduct of elections. With such a record of inefficiency and incompetency, I am amazed at the candidacy of the present County Judge for reelection. In order to escape the consequences of the lamentable manner in which he has conducted his office, in violation of the law and in utter disregard for the ethics of the judiciary, he has tried to convey to the public that there was a contest pending against me for the Republican nomination for County Judge in his court. He knows, or he ought to know, that if a contest were filed against me, the only court it could be started in under the law was the Circuit court."

Persecuted in Recount.

"And yet for several months, at a heavy expense to the taxpayers of Cook county, he persisted in recounting the Republican ballots cast for County Judge. In order to make it appear votes had been stolen for me, the present County Judge, who is my opponent in the November election, arbitrarily and without warrant in law threw out thousands of ballots on trivial technicalities; and yet when he was all through with his high-handed, unlawful and prejudiced count, he demonstrated that I had been nominated by the Republicans by a substantial majority of votes and my title to the nomination was unquestioned."

"While he was recounting the ballots cast for the Republican candidates for county judge, unlawfully and in disregard of the ethics of the bench which prohibits a judge from presiding at a hearing in which he is interested, he was for a while shamed by public opinion into starting a recount of the ballots cast for himself. After several hundred precincts had been canvassed by him, and his own count showed that his judges and clerks had stolen twice as many votes for him as had been stolen for any other candidate, he arbitrarily and without assigning any reason stopped counting his own ballots."

Abandoned Democratic Recount.

"At the request of some Democratic candidates he began a recount of the Democratic ballots cast for the candidates for the offices that these candidates were running for; and when it became apparent from such recount that the frauds committed for the Democratic candidates were overwhelmingly more than any frauds committed for Republican candidates, he summarily abandoned that recount, and his friends assigned as a reason for such action the fact that the Democratic candidates were unable to continue to pay watchers to watch the recount being conducted by the Democratic county judge. Why is it necessary that any candidate be forced to hire watchers to watch a recount in the court of the county judge, if they have confidence in the integrity of that court?"

"The law provides that a contestant must file a bond to cover the costs of the contest. This provision of the law was disregarded by the present county judge in the contest for the nomination for county commissioner. For several months, without a bond, and the cost all being borne by the public instead of the contestants as the law contemplates, he continued to count the ballots cast for the Republican candidates for county commissioners, until the candidates that he apparently was interested in had run so far behind in the recount that Judge Jarecki dismissed the contest several months after it had been going on, on the theory that he had no right under the law to count the ballots at all."

Seeks to Dodge Blame.

"This mah-afraid-of-his-record, through his press agents, deliberately attempts to create the impression that he is not responsible for the acts of his judges and clerks in the various polling places throughout the city, because they are somewhat removed from him. And yet, during the recount of the ballots recently held before him, gross frauds were committed by his hangers on in his own courtroom, under his very eye. So gross were the frauds that it necessitated him recounting part of the recount. According to the public press, ballots cast at the last primary election, with which he is charged under his oath of office and the law with preserving, had been lost or destroyed."

"He and his press agents talk vaguely but loudly about gunmen and hoodlums, and the part they took in the last election; but they remain strangely silent about the hoodlums and gunmen appointed by the county judge and his board of election commissioners as judges and clerks to conduct that election."

Proper Issue in Campaign.

"I submit that it is a proper issue in this campaign to discuss the records and qualifications of both candidates for county judge. In this campaign I intend to do so. Inasmuch as I have pointed out briefly part of the record of my Democratic opponent, I welcome a discussion by him of my record as a citizen, husband, or public official. I have given years of service to the public, and I invite a discussion of my record as a soldier in the service of my country, or as an assistant state's attorney of Cook county in the prosecution of the duties of that office, or in any of the various activities I have engaged in during my lifetime."

ARCHE REBELS ACT TO FORCE OUT PRESIDENT

And Mrs. Headburg Plans Fight to Stay In.

Insurgent members of the Arché club met in special session at the home of their chief, Mrs. Edward L. Murfey, yesterday to draft a letter to Mrs. David MacLean, president of the second district of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs, asking that body to form a tribunal to pass upon whether Mrs. Albin L. Headburg was legally removed as president of the Arché club.

All action necessary in keeping Mrs. Headburg out of office and out of the club will be taken, the committee announced. They intend "to go the limit," even if it means full airing of mutual grievances in a courtroom.

Mrs. Headburg Stands Fast.

And at her home, Mrs. Headburg yesterday declared her intention of attending the first meeting at the Kenwood clubhouse, Oct. 1, in her "rightful office as president, from which I have never been removed." She will also employ legal aid, she said, if forced to it. Both sides, it was intimated, are looking forward to the clash Oct. 1 with considerable relish.

In substance the letter to Mrs. MacLean pointed out:

1. That Mrs. Headburg is guilty of tampering with the annual minutes and is subject to a penitentiary sentence because she ordered certain portions of the minutes secretly "covered" (that is, pasted over). Also, that she ordered a false motion picture into the minutes.
2. That Mrs. Headburg charged personal expenses to the club's charge accounts.
3. That the so-called insurgents consist of the oldest members among whom are one founder and five life members, in contrast with the board members who support Mrs. Headburg, three of whom joined as lately as 1921.
4. That Mrs. Headburg, instead of covering the charges brought against her, has evaded them by "cowardly" shifting the blame for her misdeeds upon others.
5. That Mrs. Headburg's charges against the integrity of Mrs. William A. Thirwall, the treasurer, are absolutely false.

The letter asks that Mrs. Thirwall as well as the recording secretary and the club records be brought before the officers of the second district "so that the truth may be determined."

15,000 CHICAGO MEN AVAILABLE FOR "DRY ARMY"

If Lincoln C. Andrews' plan to call the "last reservists to the colors in the war with liquor" is approved, Chicago's dry army will be increased by about 15,000 men.

Gen. Andrews has asked that all postal employees, steamboat inspectors, lighthouse personnel, and employees of the federal farm air bureau be added to the prohibition forces and he plans to submit his proposal to the conference of regional prohibition directors in Washington today. Should this group approve, President Coolidge will be asked to order the members of his cabinet to cooperate with Andrews in his new campaign.

Approximately 14,000 postal employees in Chicago would be available under Andrews' plan. Another thousand could be drawn from the lighthouse, farm bureau, and steamboat personnel. Officials in the various departments hesitated to comment last night on the probable effectiveness of the plan of the assistant secretary of the treasury, who is charged with national prohibition enforcement.

Tobey Removal Sale Of Furniture 15 MORE BUYING DAYS UNTIL WE START TO MOVE

WEDNESDAY night, October 6, the vans will start moving what is left of our stocks to the new store, ushering in the end of Chicago's greatest removal sale.

A few days thereafter the new store on Michigan Boulevard and Lake Street will be opened. The great selling of this sale has moved quantities of furniture into Chicago homes, but a considerable assortment still remains, much of which we must sell at any price, as new furniture has already arrived to take its place in the new store.

Therefore, sacrifice prices have been made for these days that are probably without parallel in the annals of Chicago. During this time we will be unable to send furniture on approval or to accept cancellations, so we must ask our patrons to be sure of their selections before buying.

In many cases there is but one piece of a kind, and all are subject to prior sale

LEAGUE MAY USE GOLD TO FIGHT GERMS OF WAR

Money Aid for Attacked State Is Urged.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
GENEVA, Sept. 19.—Guarantee of security to countries attacked by hostile neighbors will be secured through "financial assistance," if the memorandum submitted by the Finnish delegation is accepted by the seventh assembly of the league of nations.

The scheme, proposed by Foreign Minister Holsti, which gained the approval of many delegates to the assembly, was regarded by the council of the league to be of such importance as to merit detailed study before it is debated. It will be brought before a council committee Wednesday, after which it may come before the assembly.

Help Victims Buy Arms.
The proposal is unique in that it approaches security problems from a different door, but seeks the same end as the unfortunate protocol, proposed by Foreign Minister Benes of Czechoslovakia, which Great Britain scuttled a year and a half ago. Where Dr. Benes' scheme emphasized military assistance under article 16 of the league covenant, Mr. Holsti's plan envisages immediate, unlimited financial assistance for an attacked country.

For instance, should Poland be attacked by Russia, the members of the league would advance financial credits which would enable Poland to buy unlimited supplies of munitions, cannon, and airplanes from Germany, England, France, or any other accessible markets.

At the same time the league members would be pledged to withhold financial assistance, supplies, and credits from the aggressor state.

Under this plan, it is claimed, all countries would be able to disarm to the very limit, inasmuch as the main-

GERMANS START THEIR FIRST PAPER IN PARIS SINCE WAR OUTBREAK

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
PARIS, Sept. 19.—The first issue of the Pariser Deutsche Zeitung made its appearance here today in yellow, red and black, the German colors. This is the first German paper to be published in Paris since the war, and is a direct descendant of the old Pariser Zeitung, which was read up to 1914 by all the German visitors in Paris.

The Pariser Deutsche Zeitung apparently is the first fruit of the luncheon at Thoiry between Foreign Minister Stresemann of Germany and Foreign Minister Briand of France, where the two statesmen reached a tentative accord on the problems affecting both nations.

It calls attention to the fact that the French capital just now is host to more Germans than Americans or English. The Tribune correspondent today saw five sightseeing buses filled with Germans in front of Notre Dame cathedral, and a single charabanc of Americans, English and Belgians. The Sunday afternoon crowd around the tomb of the Unknown Soldier was at least one-third German.

In its dedication the paper says: "The German speaking tourists who are crossing the hospitable threshold of France to enjoy the incomparable beauties of Paris will be glad to meet a paper published in German, giving German news, pledged to the truth and free from any taint of the old hatred between the two countries."

tenance of huge supplies of war material would be unnecessary.

Approved by U. S. Experts.
According to the American delegation of the preparatory disarmament committee, the Finnish scheme is the most plausible proposal thus far advanced to provide the much desired security which the majority of nations insist on as a preliminary to disarmament.

The countries which are unalterably opposed to pledging themselves to carry out the military features of article 16, which is regarded as holding the teeth of the covenant, will be unable legitimately to refuse cooperation under the "financial aid plan," it is declared.

STEEL PRODUCTS SHOW ON TODAY; EXPECT 100,000

One hundred thousand visitors are expected to attend the International Steel and Machine Tool Exposition opening on the Municipal Pier today for a five day session.

At the same time, noted scientists and industrialists from many parts of the world will gather at the meetings of the American Society for Steel Treating at the Drake hotel.

More than a million dollars' worth of machines of every description has been installed at the pier, and they are held to be capable of producing practically every kind of steel product in use.

Wheels to Turn Today.
Today all the wheels will be set to turning. Some of them will be massive machines, handling great tasks, and others will be the most delicate scientific instruments used in the production and examination of steel and its by-products.

The exposition is stated to be the largest industrial show held in the United States, and the Municipal pier was selected for the reason that no other building afforded sufficient space for the exhibits.

Expect 100,000 Visitors.
Although both the exposition and the sessions of the society are almost entirely of a technical nature, the officials in charge predict an attendance of at least 100,000.

Bulletins issued by the society state that among the steel kings who are expected to attend the sessions are Elbert H. Gary and Charles M. Schwab.

Dr. William Minot Guerrier, director of the Metal Institute of Germany, will be one of the principal speakers.

WIFE PROTESTS; KILLS HIMSELF.
Philip Krausler, a toolmaker, committed suicide yesterday by swallowing a quantity of acid in the basement of his home, 3106 Winona avenue, when his wife reproached him for his excessive drinking; he ran into the basement and drank the poison, the police say.

Chicago Welcomes Vitaphone and "Don Juan"

"As Martinelli sang you forgot that he was not actually there; you heard the exquisite music, saw his lips shape the words as they came to you, and you marveled at the beauty of the performance. . . Synchronization of music and movement was perfect. . . From the introductory talk by Will Hays to the full opera orchestra ensemble from the Metropolitan, led by Henry Hadley."—Ruth Russell, Tribune.

"Vitaphone at McVickers proved itself one of the marvels of the age. . . 'Don Juan' is gorgeous, beautifully acted, and it must have cost a fortune. John Barrymore alone is enough to put it over."—Claudia Cassidy, Journal of Commerce.

"Vitaphone is something to cheer about. It is more than a novelty, more than a sensation. I have no doubt it will become an industry."—Ashton Stevens, Herald and Examiner.

"Martinelli sang 'Vesti la Gubba' exactly as he sang it at Ravinia a fortnight ago; his voice was accurate, familiar, characteristic. . . supported by the Philharmonic Orchestra of New York, one of the great symphonic bodies of the world. . . It was uncanny, but it was miraculous, too."—Glenn Dillard Gunn, Herald and Examiner.

"Vitaphone has solved the problem of synchronization. . . Last evening at McVickers the Chicago public was given the first opportunity to see the artist on the screen and hear him at the same time. If there were any skeptics present the performance of the overture to Tannhauser must have cleared all their doubts. . . It was uncanny."—Karlton Hackett, Post.

"One comes away from the first hearing of Vitaphone with the feeling of having sat in on the making of history. It is an event, an experience, which marks the biggest technical advance in motion pictures since their first crudities were overcome. . . With Vitaphone, synchronization is absolute. . . And its possibilities seem limitless, both as an accompaniment for films and in its value from a musical standpoint. . . 'Don Juan,' with John Barrymore as its star, is too good to be overshadowed even by Vitaphone. It is a glowing page. . . a rich setting for Barrymore's artistry."—Genevieve Harris, Post.

"Vitaphone proves uncanny. . . it was a revelation. At last a permanent record of individual musical performances, of orchestral renditions, of synchronization of music and acting, can be made and preserved indefinitely, so that posterity may have proof of what speakers really said, of how artists really sang or played, how they looked, how actors played their parts on the stage, how the scenery looked and what the choruses and other stage characters did."—Maurice Rosenfeld, Daily News.

"Barrymore's acting and Vitaphone music make 'Don Juan' miracle photoplay."—Rob Reel, Evening American.

"There was but one phrase on every lip last night at McVickers Theatre: 'A magnificent show.' One had no need of feeling the pulse of the public. It beat so loudly that only the dead could not hear. It spoke in the completely absorbed silence, the fascinated gaze, the utter self-forgetfulness of every unit in the big theatre—and I, for one, realized that the subcaption on the program was not a mere propaganda effusion when it asserted that 'Vitaphone is thrilling the world.'"—Herman Devries, Evening American.

GERMANY TO PAY FRANCE IN CASH FOR PACT, BELIEF

May Give $250,000,000 to Help Stabilize Franc.

BY GEORGE SELDES.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
BERLIN, Sept. 19.—What is the price Germany must pay for the proposed rapprochement with France? In answer to this question, upon which the peace of Europe largely depends, the German government has made a material concession with which France hopes to stabilize its finances. These are said to include 500,000,000 gold marks (about $125,000,000) in German railroad bonds, held by the government, and whatever sum up to 2,000,000,000 marks (about $500,000,000) which Seymour Parker Gilbert, the American agent-general for the Dawes reparations plan, is willing to place at the nation's disposal.

Mr. Gilbert holds 11,000,000,000 gold marks (about $2,750,000,000) worth of obligations in the "world's highest economy," the German railroad system. Until now the American, who is directing Germany's salvation, has refused to permit the flotation of these bonds on the world market. The German leaders believe that when the time comes that they can say they have cemented Franco-German relations and have saved Europe from another disaster, the reparations commission will feel that Wall Street and other nations will take any amount of bonds offered.

Germans May Buy Most Bonds.

According to the viewpoint of President Hindenburg, the German Reichsbank, Germany can absorb internally German railway bonds amounting to 1,500,000,000 marks (about $375,000,000). Dr. Schacht is going to Paris after his return from Vienna for the purpose of consulting French authorities and bankers.

There is some doubt, however, as to whether Mr. Gilbert will authorize the sale of more than 500,000,000 marks worth of bonds, which, added to the German government's bonds, valued at 500,000,000 marks, would net $250,000,000. It is believed Germany will be able to absorb a large part of these bonds at a small interest rate, whereas, if sold in Wall Street or London, 7 to 8 per cent interest would be demanded.

Nation Backs Stresemann. Foreign Minister Stresemann has the support of President von Hindenburg, Chancellor Marx and a large part of the people in his plans for a full accord with France. President von Hindenburg cut short his inspection of the army maneuvers and today rushed to Berlin where he will hold a conference tomorrow.

The purpose of the conference is to voice support of Dr. Stresemann and enable Germany to inform its ambassador at Paris that the whole nation is behind the German foreign minister, if Premier Raymond Poincaré will only accept the pact which Foreign Minister Briand will present. German leaders are confident the French cabinet will approve the rapprochement at its meeting Tuesday.

MRS. HALL MUST STAND TRIAL ON MURDER CHARGE

New York, Sept. 19.—[Special.]—Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall must stand trial on the indictment charging that she participated in the murder of her husband, the Rev. Dr. Edward W. Hall, and Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, Assistant Attorney General Alexander Simpson made clear today.

Reports were that the widow, having played a lesser part than the others jointly accused with her—her brothers, Henry Stevens and Willie Stevens, and her cousin, Henry De La Bruyere Carpenter—might escape facing the jury.

All of the persons indicted for this murder, said Senator Simpson today, "will be tried for murder."

The special prosecutor declared that Ralph V. Gorsline, vestryman of the slain rector's church, would be subjected to additional examination. Gorsline broke down last week under twenty hours of questioning and told how he and Miss Catherine Rastall had been near the scene of the crime.

"Bread and milk should always have a prominent place in the diet. A generous amount of bread made with lots of milk should be included in every meal. Wu Retreats as Troops

BY CHARLES DAILEY.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
PEKING, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The United Press correspondent has just returned from the thirty mile Chinese front, where the allied armies of Marshal Chang Tso-lin of Manchuria and Marshal Wu Peifu, central China leader, defeated the Kuomintang (national army) of Marshal Feng Yu-hsiang, in one of the great battles of modern China, in which 200,000 soldiers took part.

PEKING, Sept. 18.—The United Press correspondent has just returned from the thirty mile Chinese front, where the allied armies of Marshal Chang Tso-lin of Manchuria and Marshal Wu Peifu, central China leader, defeated the Kuomintang (national army) of Marshal Feng Yu-hsiang, in one of the great battles of modern China, in which 200,000 soldiers took part.

Today beyond Kaigan, 125 miles northwest of Peking, the nationalists are endeavoring to recuperate from the defeat, and the expected consolidation of the nationalists with the Cantonese forces which have defeated Marshal Wu Peifu in the neighborhood of Hankow presages an extensive nationalist-Cantonese drive to the sea over a front of 1,500 miles.

Hope to Oust Wu.

The Cantonese, who hope soon to eliminate Wu as a factor in central China, would turn down the Yangtze river toward Shanghai, while the nationalists would seek to drive back Chang's army, which is now trying to relieve Wu toward Mukden.

BUCKNER FACES CRUCIAL TEST IN DAUGHERTY TRIAL

New York, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The government is expected to face the crucial test this week in the Daugherty trial, which resumes tomorrow.

Already it has established that the late John T. King, once Republican national committeeman from Connecticut, received $441,000 as "commission" for his part in obtaining the return to allegedly German owners of $7,000,000 realized from the sale of American Metals company stock seized as enemy property during the war. Its next important task will be to convince the jury that the two defendants, Harry M. Daugherty, attorney general in the Harding administration, and Thomas W. Miller, then alien property custodian, shared in this money for allowing the $7,000,000 claim.

Numerous documents have been presented as evidence by District Attorney Buckner bearing on the part Daugherty and Miller played in the transaction, but so far the federal prosecutor has not reached the point in his case of actually attempting to trace the money which he charges was accepted by Daugherty and Miller.

magnate, who negotiated the $7,000,000 deal, has testified, as star witness for the government, that he gave King $441,000, but as King is now dead the government will have to rely primarily upon bank records in its efforts to prove that Daugherty and Miller shared in the money King received.

In opening his case, the government prosecutor asserts that important records concerning the disposition of part of the money paid King had been destroyed, and accused Daugherty of having had a hand in their destruction.

How smart are your children?

HOW CAN YOU TELL an extraordinarily gifted child when you see one? What are the signs and symptoms that reveal to you whether your children are bright, dull, or just average?

May not your child become a genius? What wouldn't you give to know now—to understand just how to shape its education to its greatest advantage?

Professor Lewis M. Terman, head of the Department of Psychology of Stanford University, has spent his life studying stupidity and genius. He knows possibly more than any other living man about the traits and characteristics of gifted children. He recently turned a thousand precocious children inside out. And the thrilling story of what he found inside is told by Albert Edward Wigam in the October issue of The American Magazine.

Professor Terman has made a great contribution to the knowledge of his generation. He has brought the elusive workings of the child mind into the laboratory of scientific analysis. The story of his achievements is one of those articles which make The American Magazine a living force. For there is no limit to the interest men and women feel in the exploration and discoveries of life.

And this magazine is life!

RUSSIA GIVES FRENCH BANKER BIG GRAIN DEAL

Will Handle All Soviet Grain in France.

BY HENRY WALES.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
PARIS, Sept. 19.—The Tribune's
Paris correspondent is able to confirm the importance of the recent secret agreement, signed in Moscow, giving the French bank of Paris a monopoly on the sale of Russian grain in France and the right to export grain from Russia without the control of the Soviet commission for foreign trade. A recent dispatch from THE TRIBUNE's correspondent at Riga, Latvia, revealed this agreement.

The Dreyfus bank buys and sells large quantities of Argentine, Austrian, and Russian wheat.

The deal is regarded in French financial circles as a revelation of the breakdown of the Soviet foreign commerce system which was conceived by M. M.
Kameneff and Krassin, who are now stepping from power. M. Stalin, the dominant power in the political bureau, has decided the system must be scrapped to save the country from commercial ruin.

Trade Balance Unfavorable.

The Soviet's unfavorable trade balance for the eleven months from October, 1925, to September, 1926, was $50,- 000,000.

By granting the Dreyfus bank the

OFFICIALS PREDICT RAPID GROWTH OF U. S. AIRPLANE COMMERCE

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—That the United States is at the threshold of important forward steps in commercial aviation, and that this development later will extend to foreign fields, is the opinion of officials in various departments interested in its growth. The progress which is being made and the increasing interest which is being taken in aviation lead them to believe that the day is not far when commercial air service routes will cover the country.

Mail service to Havana is expected to start about Jan. 1, next, when a new airplane service to Cuba is opened, and it is believed that this will be extended to Central America and Panama within the next year. Airplane mail service across the Atlantic, in the opinion of some officials, also will be established in the not distant future.

In airplane mail service, this country is leading all others. With this as a basis, it is believed that commercial aviation in this country will develop rapidly.

In France, which is one of Russia's biggest customers, the Soviets hope to obtain larger sales abroad and reduce their commercial deficit. They also hope to inspire the peasants with confidence through the knowledge that their grain will bring higher prices.

Will Help Finance Crops.

Although the Dreyfus bank will not have to buy from the Soviet foreign trade commissariat, it will have to deal with the local Soviet organizations and not directly with the peasants.

The bank agreed, THE TRIBUNE is told, to finance crops in certain regions which Moscow could not do without further currency inflation.
The Soviet chervonets (Soviet money unit) would not permit this.

Mexico City, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Gen.
Obregon, former president, has arrived safely at his home in Cajon and is not in the field fighting the Yaqui cording to Gen. Pina, undersecretary of war. Gen. Pina assured the Associated Press today that the government has no confirmation of the report of a serious engagement between the Yaqui Indians and the Federal forces. No official report of such fighting has been made, he says.

ALL THE WORLD IS SAYING
"HAVE A CAMEL"

Why does Camel lead the world?

The answer is Quality. Camels contain the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos grown . . . such blending as is found in no other cigarette. . . . Care and skill that stop at no expense. When you buy a pack of Camels you get the finest cigarettes made, regardless of price.

Increasing millions who've smoked other brands now smoke Camels.
Every week, every day, Camel wins and holds a growing army of experienced smokers. Since smoking began, Camel popularity is the greatest ever known.

Camel smokers are the most enthusiastic body of smokers in the world —for Camels never tire the taste, never leave a cigarette after-taste. Camels are a lifetime of smoking pleasure.

Just try a Camel and taste the smoke from nature's choicest tobaccos.
. . . Find the mildness and mellowness that have taught the whole world to say, "Have a Camel!"

Fall Opening 1926

FROCKS. Casting a far-reaching radiance through every phase of the mode, the fall season enters, a-blaze with a splendor reminiscent of the days of the Renaissance. Magnificence takes possession of women's frocks in terms of scintillating mediums.

Glittering sequins, the ever-present gold cloth, crystal beads and paillettes, metal laces and velvet and satin, clothe essentially simple lines in a spangled glow.

Drapings suggestive of the classical appear, yet now there is an insouciance identified with this modern age. Fringe, tiers and shirrings are in this spirit.

Enriched by many red shades, colors of the season are mellow in tone, while black holds in its opaque depths a smartness which never falters.

Fourth Floor, North and South.

COATS. Whether for the occasions of sport or in the formal affairs of the world, coats take straight lines. Often, to demonstrate a paradox, a soft blouse above the hips is seen, which, nevertheless, by its very deftness is able to keep the silhouette slim.

Deep collars whose peltries—squirrel, fox, wolf, beaver and nutria—are of luxurious softness, impart the elegance of Winter, 1926.

Another note in coats that interests is the sectioned seamings and yokes which result in perfection in fitting.

Fourth Floor, North and South.

HATS. Individuality, so important, becomes, in the French Shop this season, a feeling that pervades each line of the hats. Each is designed to suit not only the wearer, but the identical formal or informal occasion.

PARIS modistes use the metallic effects—and French themes appear here in hats of fine gold and silver cloth, often combined with velvet. Metallic laces set off in little dance caps the fragility of tulle.

Ornaments are brilliant to top the season's luxurious mood; while folds, drapings and gold-color embroideries distinguish with special significance the new in line.

BETTING COUPS FAIL AS JOCKEYS VIE FOR GLORY

Youths at Hawthorne Upset Best of Plans.

BY FRENCH LANE.

Youthful race riders at Hawthorne, fighting for rich contracts, which will begin to appear along about the first of next year, have been upsetting several well intended betting coups during the early days of the fall season. And the players at the old west side track, accustomed to a "good thing" in nearly every race in other years, are beginning to wonder about this new era of the sport of kings.

What was probably the biggest attempted coup to go wrong came in the last race Saturday. Columbia II, owned by Terry Druggan's Sanola Farm stable, was made the medium of one of the biggest plunges in Chicago district racing in many years.

Columbia beaten by Nose. After Columbia II had raced in front almost to the shadow of the finish line, an unsophisticated kid named Cheatham, riding like his life depended on the outcome, brought the 25 to 1 shot Pequet up to beat Columbia II by a nose.

Earlier in the day a lot of so-called smart players backed a horse called Scamp so stoutly it looked as if the race might have been run the night before. The price against him dropped from 15 to 1 to 4 to 1. But Bobby Jones came along on The Runt and whipped Scamp so soundly he finished out of the money.

Another Coup Fails. A few days after the season opened R. E. Clark, which usually wins when the right money is backing him, was the center of another great plunge.

But the same long-legged Cheatham rode Bonny Castle so energetically that Bonny Castle beat R. E. Clark in another nose finish.

It is not Cheatham or Jones, it's young Pinnerly, Pershall, D. Lynch, or C. E. Allen who upsets the best made plans.

Hawthorne enters into the second week of its 18 day fall meeting today with 110 horses named in the overnight entries for the seven races. The fields, except during the early spring racing in Maryland and Kentucky are the largest of the year in America.

100 Mile Auto Race at Roby to Schneider

Louis Schneider, Indianapolis pilot driving a Chicago owned car, yesterday won the 100 mile national dirt track championship at Roby speedway.

Schneider broke two records. He lowered the track time for a mile to 46.15, four-fifths of a second lower than Sonny Takamont's old mark, and completed the century grind in 50:50, more than two minutes faster than the former western record.

Wilbur Shaw of Indianapolis, who made the going all the way, was second, a lap behind Schneider and himself under the former record. Shaw, Baumann and Schneider were fighting for the front rank position during the entire time Baumann was in the race.

D. D. Morris and Walter Martin in No. 22 and 21 were within fighting distance until the three-quarter mark was reached when both broke down and were unable to continue. Frank Brisco of Milwaukee was third.

The junk car race of five miles furnished the afternoon's fun. Joe Fusco was the winner.

The 100 mile national championship will be held at Roby on Oct. 19.

The Beloit Fairies slugged their way to a double killing at Logan Square park yesterday, downing the home club, 13 to 3, and 7 to 0, before 3,500 fans.

Jim Vaughn held the Squares helpless in the opener, while his mates pounded Tum McGuire off the mound in the sixth. The afternoon was a hurlers' battle between Miller and Phillips until the fifth, when the Squares' defense faltered.

WHEAT TRADERS AWAIT FURTHER WEATHER CLEWS

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Wheat stocks are accumulating in America and Canada. Weather conditions are uncertain. Large speculative shorts, for the present, show no disposition to reenter the market.

The prospects of clearing weather and the expectations of a larger movement of spring wheat from the country to mills and terminal markets are against the bulls for the time being.

Much Depends on Farmers.

In case farmers in the United States and Canada should not rush their spring wheat to market as fast as expected, the view of the trade may change somewhat and become less bearish. Aside from the weather, which to a large extent will control the marketing not only of wheat, but of corn and oats, there are other factors.

With the farmers working more extensively through cooperative marketing associations, they may have some effect on the future course of market values. There is every indication of strong efforts being made to pass legislative measures designed to help the farmer, among them being the McNary bill, which is to be re-introduced with numerous changes, according to Congressman McNary.

There also are the usual rumors about politicians giving the market help prior to election for political effect.

Winnipeg prices dropped below Chicago on the distant futures, 1 1/2c over Chicago September for the October delivery in the Canadian market, a gain in the latter for the week of 1/2c, while December wheat closed at $1.31 1/2, and May 11 1/2c, showing gains of 1/2c. Minneapolis December closed at $1.41 1/2, off 1/2c, and Kansas City December at $1.37 1/2, off 1/2c.

Corn is maturing or making progress over a wide territory. It is estimated, however, that 50 to 75 per cent of the crop has matured, with an average of fully 50 per cent. So far there has been no frost in leading corn sections and every day of favorable weather helps the crop along.

Extensive losses from floods in Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Iowa, and Kansas had only temporary effect on market values. Local professionals, whose purchases were of sufficient magnitude to advance prices for a time, failed to force prices above the previous week's high level, except on May. That temporarily was at the best Tuesday, while lowest prices were made on Saturday, with net losses of 1/4c for the week.

The week's range averaged about 1/4c, with the finish at about the bottom. September corn being 7 1/2c, December 8 1/2c, and May 8 1/2c.

Large Movement Expected.

Indications are for a larger movement from the country, as farmers in Illinois and Iowa are credited with selling about 1,500,000 bu. of old corn to arrive in the near future. Stocks are decreasing at a surprising rate, but attract no atten-

SHARP PROVISIONS BREAK

Lard prices dropped around 1/2c a pound and short ribs for December delivery more than 1c, and bellies 1/2c a pound from the high point of the week and closed around the bottom, with lard futures 45 1/2c lower, short ribs 40 1/2c, and bellies at 45 1/2c lower than a week ago.

Lard stocks are decreasing and supplies of lard hogs are lighter, while increased offerings of spring hogs the last three weeks has lowered the average weight 11 pounds. Packers are apparently buying lard on breaks and longs are liquidating near by deliveries, with the cotton oil interests active in January delivery. Prices for the week follow:

Out Crop Damaged.

Rains in many sections the last three weeks has lowered the quality of oats in shock and in some instances reduced the quantity. This, while influencing local operators to take hold of the market on the buying side, failed to bring in enough country buying to enable local bulls to sustain an advance of 1/2c over the previous week's high, with September leading, and the latter finished only 1/4c higher for September, with other deliveries unchanged compared with the previous week.

Cash demand improved, and it has been profitable to take No. 3 white oats out of store and sell them on track at a profit, as the primary movement of oats has been the heaviest at this time in five years. Week's prices follow:

Liquidation in Rye.

Longs in rye unloaded during the closing days of the week, after forcing prices higher, making a tame finish at well toward the lowest of the week, with losses of 1/2c. Export business continues disappointing, with nothing in sight at the moment to indicate an increase in foreign demand. September closed Saturday at 94c, December 90c, and May 81 1/2c.

Local Risk Men to Meet

at Round Table Talks

Through the joint efforts of the insurance council of the Junior Association of Commerce and the Insurance Club of Chicago, local insurance organizations have arranged for weekly round table discussions which will bring the insurance men of the city into one body. Prominent men will be secured to address the meeting on fire, life and casualty insurance. Insurance men and the public are invited to attend these meetings which start Tuesday, Sept. 28, in the Insurance Exchange building, 175 West Jackson boulevard.

IVES ATTACKS STATE INVASION OF RISK FIELD

BY CHARLES BARTON.

Government ownership of industry in reality is the Santa Claus idea of government heralded by political sleigh bell ringers, Henry S. Ives, vice president of the Casualty Information Clearing house of Chicago, told the insurance agents of Minnesota in convention last Friday at Red Cloud.

It is the product of leading minds and leading ambitions, the executive continued. As an actuality the plan is a languorous method of carrying on the world's work.

At all times it will be found to be a draining brake on individual enterprise and a stubborn barrier to industrial progress, Mr. Ives said. It may be well defined as the substitution of government deficits for private profits.

Policies in Insurance.

Those who are enrolled under the banner of insurance, he asserted, find themselves face to face today with this political invasion of the traditional domain of private enterprise.

"The reason for this threat against the institution of insurance is obvious," Mr. Ives said. "Insurance in many ways is the 'key' business of the modern industrial age. Commerce and trade of the world would be stalled if it were not for the insurance motive power. The assets of the American risk companies, aggregating $15,000,000,000, form the largest reservoir of liquid capital to which business has access."

"The progress toward insurance socialization is scarcely realized even by insurance men. Already sixteen states have gone into the workmen's compensation business through the medium of so-called state funds. In seven of these private companies are prohibited from competing with the state fund. This is a practical admission of the state's inability to compete with them on equal terms."

States Try Experimenting.

"Several states have experimented disastrously with bail insurance. The public bonding of public officials is still another symptom of the tendency. Two states—Wisconsin and Massachusetts—are dabbling with life insurance. And

CHICAGOAN IS MADE SECRETARY OF LARGE CLAIM ASSOCIATION

Arthur W. Pettit, assistant general counsel of the Federal Life Insurance company of Chicago, was elected secretary of the International Claim association.

At the annual convention recently held in Swampscott, Mass., Mr. Pettit has had quite a broad insurance experience, and has made a specialty of insurance law. He is a member of the American Bar association as well as the bar associations of Illinois and Chicago. For the last two years he has been secretary of the Chicago Claim association. At one time he was acting insurance commissioner of Oklahoma.

The national association of which Mr. Pettit is now secretary is composed of 111 insurance companies.

LIFE WRITINGS FOR AUGUST SHOW DECLINE OF 7.1

Writings of new life insurance by United States companies were 7.1 per cent greater during the first eight months of this year than during the corresponding period of 1925. This increase is shown despite the fact that new business during August dropped 7.1 per cent below that of August a year ago.

This was revealed last week in a statement from the Association of Life Insurance Presidents to the United States department of commerce. The compilation covers the business record of forty-five member companies, which have 81 per cent of the total volume of life insurance in force throughout the country.

For the eight month period the total new business of all classes was $7,460,000,000, against $6,925,000,000 in 1925. New ordinary insurance amounted to $5,219,000,000 of this amount. Industrial insurance written was $1,629,000,000, and group insurance $552,000,000.

Fur Beasties Defy Nature to Recognize 'Em in Milady's Coat

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

PARIS.—(Special Correspondence.)—The passion for the lean silhouette is exhibited in every single item of women's dress. Notably, it has revolutionized the fur styles.

Remember 'way back when the voluminous seal or mink coat was the high mark in elegant dressing? You could make two coats of this year's mode out of one of the old timers, and perhaps have enough over to freshen up your cloth coat with a new collar.

If there's a fur bearing animal of the whole kingdom that the world has escaped the eagle eye of this year's furrier, it is only because he could not find it, or because he could not find it in the ground beyond his reach.

And, looking at the 1926 display, you suspect the animals are put on a reducing diet to meet the market demand for fast furs. Likewise, the fur of the animals has been treated to a diet of the animals have had their hair shingled until it lies as flat and sleek as a gargoyle's collar.

The poor lamb, for one, would be ashamed to go home and let its mother see what the world has done to its hair. Mother probably wouldn't want to own the offspring, either, with its sophisticated city dyed locks, running a gamut of shades from gold to purple.

The furrier has achieved a combination of luxury, suppleness and lightness of pelt that is amazing. A whole fur coat may feel no heavier in the hand than a single fox necktiepiece.

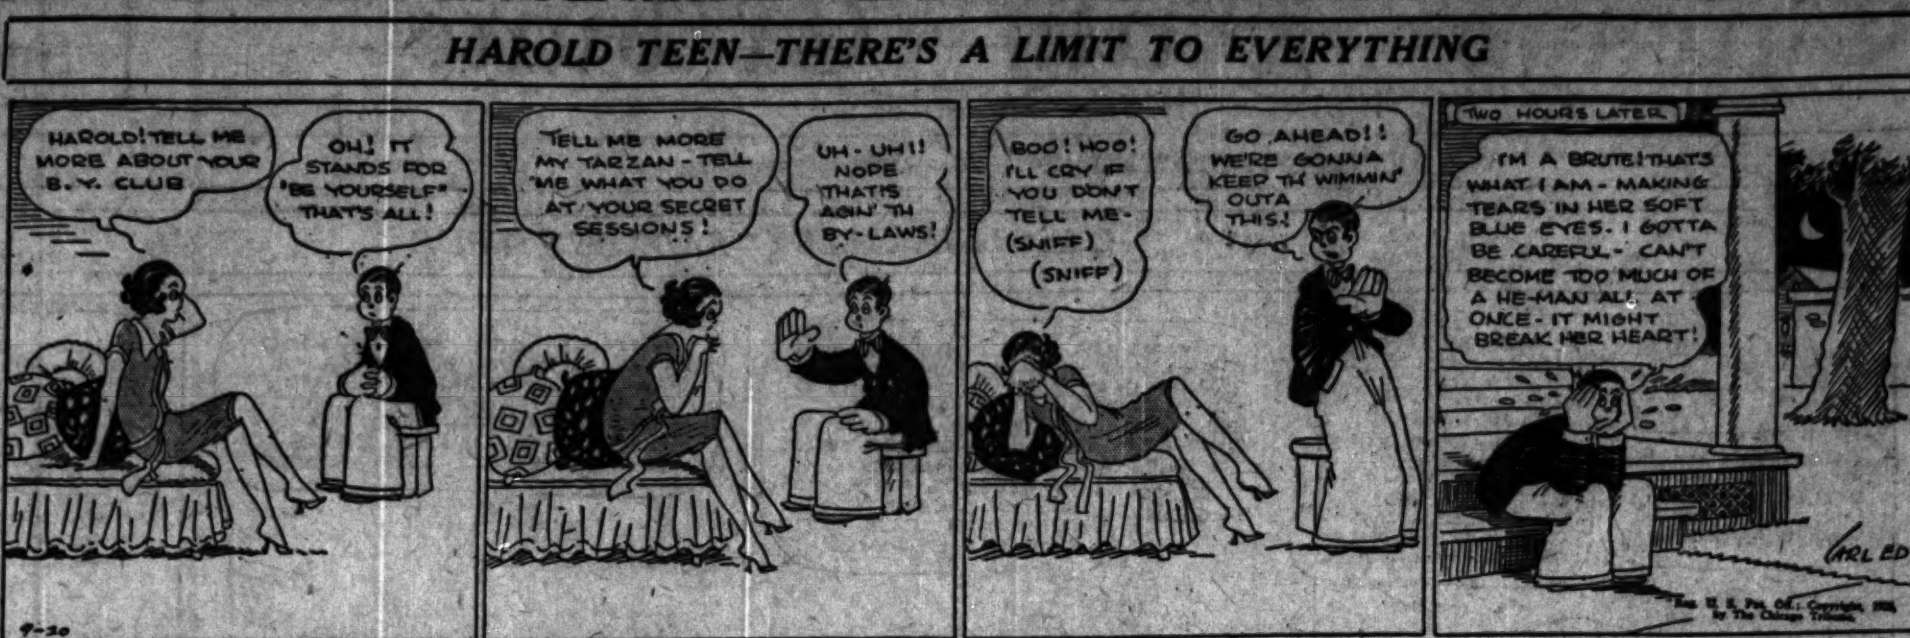

Featherweight coats they are called. The squirrel family has contributed the most unusual species in this year's showing. One suspects cross breeding with members of the feathered kingdom.

The Seal, one of them is called, and though his life is supposed to have been spent running up and down trees attending the details of active squirrel life, his fur resembles feathers of a rich golden tan. Mr. Beschoff of the house of Theobald says this is the ideal fur for the young girl.

That broadtail and mink are for the mature; kolinsky for the woman of any age, single, widow, or wed, and for the "refined smart woman" the season is showing reversible fur lined coats, the outside made of the most gorgeous, but quiet, fabric.

W. P.: COFFEE SHOULD NOT BE taken too hot. It isn't harmful to the average person if used in moderation and prepared freshly, but if its use is abused indigestion will result.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Presenting Foods.

There are an extraordinary number of ways, both good and bad, in which food can be presented. Perhaps there could hardly be a better opportunity to consider food presentation than when one is off on a fishing trip per se, but not per sea—this nice couple in phrases flew right up at me and I have to register them or it. And yet it is not the fine individual presentation of a dish that makes or mars a meal, always, but the ensemble of table, service and all.

No, I had not set out, ostensibly, to halt the swimming of any fish in the Atlantic, although I did hope to see some good fish hauls off some of the big piers. I was told by a man, sophisticated, that it was not decent for a woman to go out in a fishing boat, and I was convinced. But the sea was very mad indeed. "It tossed its white caps so," so I had all the more time to consider the fish on a variety of tables, and let me say that it is surely horrid to have tainted scallops served one while looking out to see old ocean roll.

This is the benefit of midlanders who can get palatable scallops.

No polite cook fixes up fish to swim in sauces, yet that was what I got at a hotel, with a famous and wealthy patronage, and one whose name stands for excellence of the expensive sort.

Yet elsewhere I found fish in a dainty service of sauce—no more in quantity than what a reasonable person adds of a made sauce. This latter service was expensive, but it was highly intelligent and made a great impression upon me.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $5 for each child's saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unsolicited contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Amy Bee, The Tribune, Chicago.

A moving van was unloading at a house I passed on my way to the office, and a small red-headed boy was riding up and down the front walk on a coaster wagon.

"Well, how do you do, young fellow?" I exclaimed sociably. "Would you mind telling me your name?"

"No, sir, it's Thomas Henry," replied the little chap. And as I walked on, he called out: "An' by the way, what your name are?" K. D. B.

"All our baby can do," Bobbie informed the caller, "is to wake up every two or three hours 'cause he eat himself to sleep again." J. M.

Yet it was not the correct fish knife and fork, nor the brilliant napery, nor the Latin motto in the linen, referring to one of our early and great renovations, that made this service fine.

The old waiter who knew and served me knew and loved his business. He answered every inquiry in an interested tone. Quizzed about the "Manhattan clam chowder," he admitted that it had a "tinge of tomato." As to "poached egg Friday," he said it was poached egg with lobster sauce and a lobster croquette.

Tiffany Blake Issues Cards for Sculpture Exhibit

BY NANCY E.

The stately old house of Albert M. Blake has stood for so many years that it has become a landmark in the city. It is situated on the corner of Michigan and Westward Avenue, and is one of the most interesting and beautiful homes in the city. The house is a fine example of the architecture of the late 19th century, and is well known for its beautiful gardens and lawns. The house is now being used as a sculpture exhibit, and the cards for the exhibit are being issued by Tiffany Blake.

The cards for the exhibit are being issued by Tiffany Blake, who is the daughter of Albert M. Blake. The cards are being issued to the public, and are being sold for a small sum. WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER: Still Missing

THE MORNING AFTER.

VACATION PARTY MISSING

HOUSEBOAT PARTY BELIEVED TO HAVE PERISHED AT SEA

Miss Winnie Winkle with her mother, father, brother Perry and Miss Patricia Dugan, left this city on Aug. 16th for a two weeks cruise on Mr. Gabriel Ganzy's houseboat.

Since then, there has been nothing heard or seen of the boat or the party.

Capt. Andersen, a navigator of many years experience, expressed the belief that the houseboat drifted out to sea where it may have been caught in a storm and sunk, leaving the wrecked vacationers at the mercy of tempestuous seas.

Mr. Ganzy, the wealthy owner of the houseboat, when interviewed, was greatly worried and hoped for the best.

Advice to Girls

on correct skin care—as urged today by leading skin specialists

By NORMA TALMADGE

Just one rule to follow—start for one week in this way. It has brought naturally clear complexions to thousands

DON'T think a naturally clear skin is beyond you—or, that one comes only as the result of costly beauty treatments. Modern beauty science proves otherwise.

Printed below is a rule anyone can follow without bother or expense. Authorities say it has given more women the charm of natural skin loveliness than any other method known. It has almost entirely supplanted the artificial methods of yesterday.

In your own interest, try it for one week. Note the improvement that comes when your pores are properly cleansed of their accumulations with the gentle lather of Palmolive in this way.

Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge if you wish. But never leave them on over night. They clog the pores, often enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. They must be washed away.

Follow these rules day in and day out. Your skin will be soft and lovely.

Remember that before Palmolive came, women were told, "use no soap on your face." Soaps then were judged too harsh. Palmolive is a beauty soap made for one purpose only; to safeguard your complexion. 60 years of soap study stand behind it. Millions of pretty skins prove its effectiveness beyond all doubt.

BE SURE YOU GET THE REAL PALMOLIVE

It costs but 10c the cake—so little that millions let it do for their bodies what it does for their faces. Obtain Palmolive today. Note what one week of its use will bring. The Palmolive Company (Del. Corp.), Chicago, Illinois (Advertisement) 3175

Do not use ordinary soaps in the treatment given above. Do not think any green soap, or represented as of palm and olive oils, is the same as Palmolive.

Praise for Many on Musical Programs.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.
The atmosphere in radioland yesterday was serene, with not a single note out of tune on the musical horizon.

Nothing of loftiness was attained by the program of oratorio selections given by one of W-G-N's vocal ensembles, 3 to 4 o'clock. The quality of oratorio music was best represented when tuning in programs at radio stations which were giving secular music during the same hour.

One of the programs that I never forget is the Chicago Gospel choir's rendition of "The Miracle of the Loaves and Fishes." It was a liberal half hour of instrumental music presented by a creditable company of players. The players are lacking in the fine art of playing and other finishing touches that make for high art, they are high in enthusiasm and in high character and highly enjoyable compositions played.

THE WGBH 7.1 program was good for three reasons. William Balhatch, the host, was at his best vocally and in the selection of pieces. Charles Benhart, the pianist, has a voice that merges with the orchestra and accompaniment and the high water beach hotel orchestra in the form.

It might be written on the subject of W-G-N's 9 to 10 program—English compositions. Gilbert and Sullivan, and Mark Love, basses, and an orchestra, in their selections, most notably in illustrating perhaps the most outstanding traits of typical English compositions, that of the cheerful and the dignified.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: Half Victory

THREE-FIFTHS OF RADIO STATIONS IN UNITED STATES World Leader; Lets Fans Listen Free.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19.—[Special.]—With three-fifths of the world's broadcasting stations and five times more receiving sets in use than in any other country the United States is supreme in the radio field, according to a survey made public today by the department of commerce.

Other nations, according to the department, are rapidly awakening to the immense possibilities of radio as a medium of education and entertainment, as evidenced by the fact that last year radio equipment exported from the United States was valued at $10,000,000, which was 80 per cent more than the value of shipments in 1924 and ten times the total for 1921.

All the World Can Listen In.
Broadcasting stations, according to the survey, are now operating in every corner of Europe; there are stations in the larger cities of South America, Australia, and South Africa. Japan and India in Asia also have broadcasting stations. These broadcasting stations range in power from 15,000 watts at Daventry, England, to smaller stations of 1,000 watts and less.

United States, it is pointed out, is the only important country where the radio can be listened in free of charge. License fees elsewhere range from one franc per year in France to $18 in Salvador and $13 in Lithuania. In the British Isles the fee is ten shillings; in Sweden about $2.70; Japan's fee is 80 cents; and the Union of South Africa, $12.50.

Strict Regulations Elsewhere.
Along with license fees in many countries there exist regulations of various kinds in connection with broadcasting and reception. In Greece only a Greek can own a radio set. Germany does not allow persons of Slav origin to own radio sets. The Latin American countries have also numerous rules.

Next to the United States the United Kingdom has gone the furthest in radio development. Sweden ranks next, followed by the Union of South Africa, Denmark, Austria, Germany, and France. The development in Sweden has been outstanding. Up to 1924 there was practically no market at all.

COULDS ROBBED OF CASH
A woman who had been charged with the murder of her husband, a man who had been charged with the murder of his wife, and a man who had been charged with the murder of his wife, were all charged with the murder of their respective spouses.

MOUNTAINOUS WAVES BREAK OVER CAUSEWAY BETWEEN MIAMI AND MIAMI BEACH, CUTTING OFF CITIES. This picture shows the new causeway between the Florida towns during a storm that swept the Florida coast early in August. It gives an idea of what the scene must have been during the hurricane that broke at midnight Friday.

BIRDSEYE VIEW OF FORT LAUDERDALE WHERE DAMAGE IS REPORTED AT MANY MILLIONS. Fort Lauderdale is just south of Palm Beach, on the New river, which is shown flowing through the town. It has been placed under martial law. The death list is reported growing, and relief trains carrying food have been rushed there.

ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL STREETS IN MIAMI AS IT APPEARED BEFORE HURRICANE. East Flagler street, showing the McAlliston hotel, Elks' club, and the Ponce De Leon hotel in the foreground, and the National bank in the background. Reports are that great damage was done in the district where the group of buildings stood.

STREET SCENE AT HOLLYWOOD, NORTH OF MIAMI, WHICH WAS LEVELED TO THE GROUND BY STORM.
Reports from this town are that there is only a single building in it, the Masonic temple, which remains standing. Martial law has been proclaimed and National Guardsmen are patrolling the streets. The death list here is large.

EVERY SMALL BOAT IN MIAMI HARBOR REPORTED SUNK BY HURRICANE THAT SWEEP OVER CITY. The picture shows the water front in the Florida town as it appeared before the disastrous storm. According to radio messages only the boats were sunk, but every vestige of the city docks was swept away.

BIRDSEYE VIEW OF MIAMI BEACH, WHICH WAS FLOODED THREE FEET DEEP AFTER HURRICANE.
Many buildings were blown down here by a 120 mile an hour gale which paralyzed the light and power system.
Communication between Miami Beach and Miami was cut off when water swept over the causeway connecting the two.
